

Summit Ski Club Update December 2, 2008

MASS and RISING STARS Kicking Horse Cabin

December 13 and 14 Asessippi.

Cost: $30/person/night
$5 for 2 breakfasts (Saturday and Sunday)
and supper on Saturday.

Bring your own snacks and lunches, a bathing suit (there's a Hot Tub!) sleeping bags and pillows.

This is a wonderful way to start the season!

Saturday, December 6 5 – 7 p.m.
Bud Spud and Steak Night
Tijuana Yacht Club Great Prizes! Bring your Friends.
Tickets are also available at the door.

This is a great fund raising event for our club. See you there!

Gord's Ski Shop has recently re-opened under new management. They have put together a nice price reduction package for ski club members. If you are buying anything at Gord's, identify yourself as a Summit Ski Club member!

MASS Coordinator Rob Gerry and RISING STARS Coordinator Rob Gryko will be calling everyone to confirm participation for the Kicking Horse Cabin weekend and Christmas Camps.

Christmas Camps

Asessippi December 20, 21, 22 All skiers are welcome to attend!

LAST CALL!!!!

Our Sunshine Camp (December 29 – January 2) is in jeopardy of being cancelled. We need to know immediately if you are interested. We will be making a decision about it's viability on Saturday, so please indicate interest or questions to myself, @shaw. or head coach Brian at @mts. before Saturday. For those of you who have let us know of your interest, you will hear from us on Sunday to let you know if it's on, off, or in some modified version of the proposed 5 day camp.

Registration Forms

We will be asking everyone to fill out new Manitoba Alpine Ski Division Forms and the Code of Conduct forms. Unfortunately, we did not receive the new forms until after our registration date.
