

Good morning, I am sure everyone is very busy these days, but I wanted to pass on some info.

- No Summit training tonight, Springhill does not have the chairlift open, due to the weather and snow making challenges.
- We will make a decision in the next few days regarding the training dates scheduled next week at Springhill, we are exploring options for out of town day trips.
- Dan Blankstein (big thanks Dan) has made a group booking for the members traveling to the Snow Stars Festival (E1, E2, RS + K1) in Bottineau, ND in February, please call asap to hold a room for yourself if you are planning to attend. The details are as follows:
